

Employer Investment & Organizational Impact

USC + FEI Strategic Leadership Program

June 2-5, 2026 | University of Southern California (USC) | Los Angeles, CA

Executive Summary

The USC + FEI Strategic Leadership Program is a four-day, in-person executive education experience designed specifically for senior-level financial leaders ready to expand their enterprise influence.

As financial leaders increasingly shape organizational strategy, guide transformation, and engage external stakeholders, targeted leadership development becomes a strategic investment—not a discretionary expense.

Organizational Outcomes

- Align financial insight with enterprise strategy and executive priorities.
- Contribute confidently in C-suite and board-level discussions.
- Lead technology-enabled transformation with strategic oversight.
- Strengthen executive communication in high-stakes environments.
- Enhance succession readiness and leadership bench strength.

Program Overview

- Dates: June 2–5, 2026
- Location: Los Angeles, California
- Format: Four-day, in-person executive education experience
- CPE Credits: 30
- Tuition: $8,995

Program Tuition Includes

- Daily breakfast, lunch, and refreshment breaks
 - All learning materials
 - Access to a dedicated Learning Management System (LMS)
 - Joint Certificate of Completion issued by USC Executive Education and Financial Executives International
-

Enrollment & Contact Information

Program Website: <https://www.financialexecutives.org/strategic-leadership-program>

Employer Sponsorship Inquiries: events@financialexecutives.org

Enrollment is intentionally limited to preserve the executive learning experience.