

TRUSTED PEER GROUPS

- Expand Your Network
- Problem Solve Real Time
- Learn Best Practices From Peers
- Build Lasting Relationships
- Develop Powerful Leadership Skills
- Advance Your Career

Trusted Peer Groups is an opportunity for FEI members to meet in small groups for facilitated discussion with finance professionals in similar positions. Topics include challenges, successes, shared interests, career paths, best practices, insights for the group and others.

Diverse perspectives create value. The peer group consists of professionals from various industries bringing a range of backgrounds and experiences to the table. The purpose of the Trusted Peer Groups is to give FEI members an opportunity to increase their knowledge and performance. Specifically, the goals of the Trusted Peer Groups are to:

- Facilitate value-added discussion of professional and personal issues, concerns, challenges, successes, ideas and best practices
- Provide a confidential and safe forum for sharing among respected peers with similar job responsibilities
- Support members in achieving their professional and personal goals
- Offer an avenue to develop meaningful relationships with peers

FORMAT

- 12 monthly meetings, lasting 3-4 hours
- Facilitated, discussion between members with opportunities for presentations
- 12-15 member targeted per group to keep it conversational
- Located at the Prouty Project facility in Eden Prairie

INVESTMENT

FEI is focused on delivering value to FEI members at an affordable cost. An annual fee of $1,800 includes 48+ hours of peer group learning and development, working with an independent facilitator, meeting space and food.

About FEI Twin Cities

FEI is the preeminent professional association for senior financial executives, representing 10,000 leaders nationally. The Twin Cities chapter is one of the largest and most successful chapters in FEI, and our 300+ members represent a broad cross-section of industries including for-profit and non-profit companies, academia and government. FEI members share a unique experience. At both chapter and national levels, they have front-line involvement in pertinent business issues of the day. Legislators, regulators and standard-setters seek FEI's opinions and testimony, as do the lending and investing communities, economic research organizations, and the accounting and legal professions.
